Mr Philip Morris, Principal, appointed to the new Derby University Technical College

Mr Philip Morris, Principal of the Sixth Form Academy in Tamworth will be leaving the Academy and Landau Forte Charitable Trust on 31 August 2014 to take up the a new appointment as Principal Designate and CEO of the new Derby Manufacturing University Technical College sponsored by Rolls Royce, Toyota Manufacturing (UK), the University of Derby and Derby College.

Many congratulations to Mr Morris on his new appointment which I know will be both challenging and exciting; he will be a tremendous asset to the Derby UTC which will undoubtedly flourish under his leadership. I would like to offer my sincere thanks to Mr Morris for his outstanding work in leading the set up and first phase of the Tamworth Sixth Form Academy, he leaves with the Academy well placed to continue its growth and development.

Dr Sarah Clark taking the lead

As we look to the future; the Board of Directors Appointment Sub-Committee are delighted to announce the appointment of Dr Sarah Clark our current Vice Principal at the Tamworth Sixth Form as the Acting Principal for the period 1 September 2014 to 31 August 2015.

Sarah has been an instrumental member of the team in establishing the Sixth Form so far. We would like to congratulate Sarah on her appointment and wish her every success in the coming year. We are confident that she, working with the staff, students, my successor Dr Antony Edkins (the new CEO from 1 September 2014) and the Local Board of Governors, the Tamworth Sixth Form will build on the Academy's success to date becoming firmly established as the outstanding Sixth Form provider of education for the young people of Tamworth and the wider area.
